

Live Webinar: Job Opportunity in Public Policy

Looking for a career path that will enable you to advance the ideas of liberty? Already in a position, but looking to gain the professional skills and management training to become more effective? I want to invite you to attend a live online presentation to learn about the 2010-11 Koch Associate Program, a job opportunity for professionals with up to ten years of work experience who are passionate about free-market ideas and want to become more effective at advancing liberty through their career.

Join us from your computer for one of the two live webinars on Wednesday, February 10th to learn more about this program. To attend, please register online for one of the following time slots. Remember to provide a valid email address in order to receive further information.

- Wednesday, February 10th // 3:00pm EST: Register
- Wednesday, February 10th // 7:00pm EST: Register

The program provides the opportunity to work in a full-time position at a free-market think tank, policy institute, or grassroots organization while receiving valuable management training once a week at the Charles G. Koch Charitable Foundation. Available positions range from entry- to director-level and cover a variety of roles, including policy analysis, new media, public relations, operations, and fundraising. This combination of practical work experience and continuing education creates a unique development opportunity unparalleled in the public policy arena.
